

Senator Jim Webb to Speak at the Virginia Crime Stoppers Association Conference

September 24-26
Smithfield, VA

The Virginia Crime Stoppers Association is pleased to welcome Senator Jim Webb as the keynote speaker of its annual training conference in Smithfield, VA.

Senator Webb will speak at the awards banquet on Saturday, September 25 at 6:30pm. There will be media availability with Senator Webb at 6:15pm. The VCSA conference brings together members of all of the Crime Stoppers, Crime Solvers, and Crime Line programs throughout the Commonwealth of Virginia. An outstanding member of the media and an outstanding law enforcement coordinator will be honored that night.

This year's conference will have several unique training sessions throughout the weekend including "Collaborative Fugitive Apprehension" presented by a team of Special Agents of the US Marshal's Service. And "Terrorist Awareness and Identification" presented by FBI Special Agent Andrew Bringuel of the bureau's Behavioral Analysis Unit located in Quantico, Virginia.

The conference is hosted by the Isle of Wight, Smithfield, Windsor Crime Line and is proudly sponsored by WTKR NewsChannel 3. WTKR has created a successful partnership with Hampton Roads Crime Line for its weekly "Taking Action Against Crime" segment. 63 fugitives have been caught so far.

The training sessions are at Smithfield Center at 220 North Church Street on Friday and Saturday during the day. The awards banquet featuring Senator Webb is Saturday night at the restaurant in Smithfield Station Hotel at 415 South Church Street.

The complete schedule is at <http://vacrimestoppers.net>.

For more information:
Juliet Bickford
VCSA Board Member
757-813-4050
Juliet.bickford@wtkr.com